Initial Greetings

1.1 President of the World Karate Federation

It is a source of pride for all of us who love Karate to attest that the fascination and thrills that we felt for our sport when we started practising it many years ago continue today in youngsters all over the world. Every two years, we have the opportunity to witness the outstanding influence of Karate in young ages when karatekas aged 14 to 20 from all five continents meet in the biggest underage event of our sport.

The 2019 edition of the World Cadet, Junior & U21 Championships travels this time to Chile where another memorable celebration of the impact of our sport in young ages will take place from October 23 to 27.

There, at the Polideportivo Estadio Nacional sports hall, the strength and bright future of our discipline will be showcased in yet one more demonstration of one of our biggest values: that Karate is a sport of youth.

The World Cadet, Junior & U21 Championships have grown in relevance and popularity; therefore, I want to thank the Chilean Karate Federation and its president María Angélica Coronil Flores for their support in hosting this anticipated event. I am convinced that we will experience five days full of excitement and great memories in Santiago, so much so that after the tournament, when we will go back home, we will feel tremendously hopeful for the future of our sport.

Best of luck to all the participants and organisers and a big “Oss” to all of you Karate fans.

Antonio Espinós

WKF President

1.2. President of the Karate Federation of Chile

Since 2004, the American continent has not received a World Karate Championships and it is the first time that Chile will host this great event, opening its doors to our youngest athletes, who will be able to learn about our hospitality and gratitude for making this event An unforgettable one, thanks to the presence of each one.

Karate is living a memorable cycle and this World Championships will receive the first Olympic champions in the history of karate, who won the Olympic Games of the Youth of Buenos Aires in 2018 and there will undoubtedly be some who will be in the debut of Karate in the Olympic Games of Tokyo 2020.

Karate has been prepared for this moment, the World Federation Presided by Mr. Antonio Espinós, has worked hard to make the Olympic dream possible and our athletes around the world, together with their National Federations, their Olympic Committees and government authorities, they have understood it this way and are training and dedicating themselves to reach this much dreamed sports elite.

Thus, the XI Cadet, Junior and U21 World Championship of Santiago 2019, will be a great preamble to show the greatness of our discipline and show the world the great mass of young people who live around karate, which is not only a massive sport and transversal, but also contains in itself and cultivates all the principles of Olympism that are a source of inspiration and development of virtues and values in our society.

Santiago is the beautiful capital of our country, Chile, we are happy to welcome you to become the center of world Karate during October 2019 and be able to share with you our culture, our tourist, architectural and gastronomic wealth, which will undoubtedly be of your liking and we wish it to be an enriching and unforgettable experience.

Welcome, we are waiting for you in Santiago, to build together this new link in the great success chain of world karate, maintaining the strong convection of what we are and represent in the world and Olympic sport.

Regards,

María Angélica Coronil Flores
President of the Karate Federation of Chile

2 Santiago de Chile

2.1 About Santiago de Chile

Chile is in the southwestern end of South America, between the Andes mountains and the Pacific Ocean. Its area extends to 4,200 kilometers, which makes it possible to find various landscapes and climates along its territory. In the northern extreme we find the Atacama Desert, the world's driest desert, and in the Patagonia, millenary glaciers.

Culture: Some of the city's newest attractions are: the viewpoint Sky Costanera, the tallest tower in Latin America with its 300 meters of height; the Gabriela Mistral Cultural Centre (GAM), a monumental building dedicated to the arts and culture; the Palacio de La Moneda Cultural Centre, an underground museum with exhibitions from around the world, and the Mirador Interactive Museum (MIM), filled with artefacts that allow you to experience science.

The city also has traditional areas that showcase the old town, such as the Central Market (Mercado Central), the Fine Arts Palace (Palacio de Bellas Artes), La Moneda Palace (Palacio de La Moneda, which houses the executive power), San Cristobal Hill and the Main Square (Plaza de Armas), all of which are in the city's historic center. The restaurants, bars, parks, concerts, parties, bookstores, museums, pubs and first level architectural projects give life to a modern and cosmopolitan city. In 2011, The New York Times named Santiago de Chile a must-visit location.

Santiago of Chile, host City

It is the capital of Chile and the Metropolitan Region of Santiago. It is the main urban nucleus of the country and its metropolitan area is also known as Greater Santiago.

The city hosts the main administrative, commercial, cultural, financial and governmental agencies of the country with the exception of the National Congress, the Navy, the National Customs Service, the National Fisheries Service and the National Council for Culture and the Arts, all located in the city of Valparaíso.

Although generally conceived as a single city, Santiago does not constitute a single administrative unit, but is part of the territory of 37 communes, of which 26 are completely within the urban radius and 11 with some part outside it. Most of the metropolis is located within the province of Santiago, with some communes within the provinces of Cordillera, Maipo and Talagante.

Santiago is usually positioned as a leading city in Latin America in a series of social, economic and environmental factors. The Chilean capital is the second most competitive city in Latin America, second only to São Paulo, as well as the third with the best quality of life. Within Santiago there are also large parks and natural areas. One of them is the Metropolitan Park located in Cerro San Cristóbal (figure 2) where you can visit the Zoo, trekking trails, swimming pools, the Immaculate Conception Sanctuary that is at its summit, the funicular train and the cable car.

Located in a valley, it is surrounded by mountains that offer attractive panoramas such as visiting the winter ski centers, snowboarding during the winter (Figure 3), trekking, horseback riding, climbing and much more in the Cajon del Maipo and discover the flavors of typical food when enjoying a field day.

Because of its central location, Santiago can also be in a few hours on the beach, so in one day you can visit Valparaíso, Viña del Mar or other spas in the area such as the port of San Antonio, Rocas de Santo Domingo, Isla Negra, among others.

In the outskirts of Santiago are located several of the most important wine valleys of the country, which are known for their Ruta del Vino, where you can visit the vineyards and taste different strains of wine accompanied by Chilean cuisine.

Our official language is Spanish and although it is spoken by all Chileans, there are also languages or dialects that are still used by the different indigenous communities present in our country such as Mapudungun.

Thanks to its geographical location, you can reach Chile by air, sea and land from its neighboring countries. The main access by plane is through the airport with the most use and international connections, the Comodoro Arturo Merino Benítez airport in Santiago. But there are also six other international airports located in the cities of Arica, Iquique, Antofagasta, La Serena, Pascua Island, Concepción, Puerto Montt and Punta Arena

3 How to get to the Championships

3.1 Flight

TO CHILE

The Santiago International Airport is the entry point to Chile, as it receives domestic and international flights. There are frequencies from different cities in the country, both north and south and international flights arriving from five continents. The alternatives of available aerial lines are varied and the majority from the main cities of the world.

The city center is just over 20 km away from the international airport, so you must travel by bus, taxi, minibus or leased or private vehicle

The delegations that reserve accommodation in subsidized hotels will be able to access the transportation of the airport and return.

7.5 Venue: Polideportivo Estadio Nacional

The place of competition is the Polideportivo de Estadio Nacional, located at Av. Pedro de Valdivia 4851, which is located in the municipality of Ñuñoa. This venue was built for the X Games South American Santiago 2014 and has hosted several international events, as well as the National Championship of the National Sports Federation of Karate of Chile.

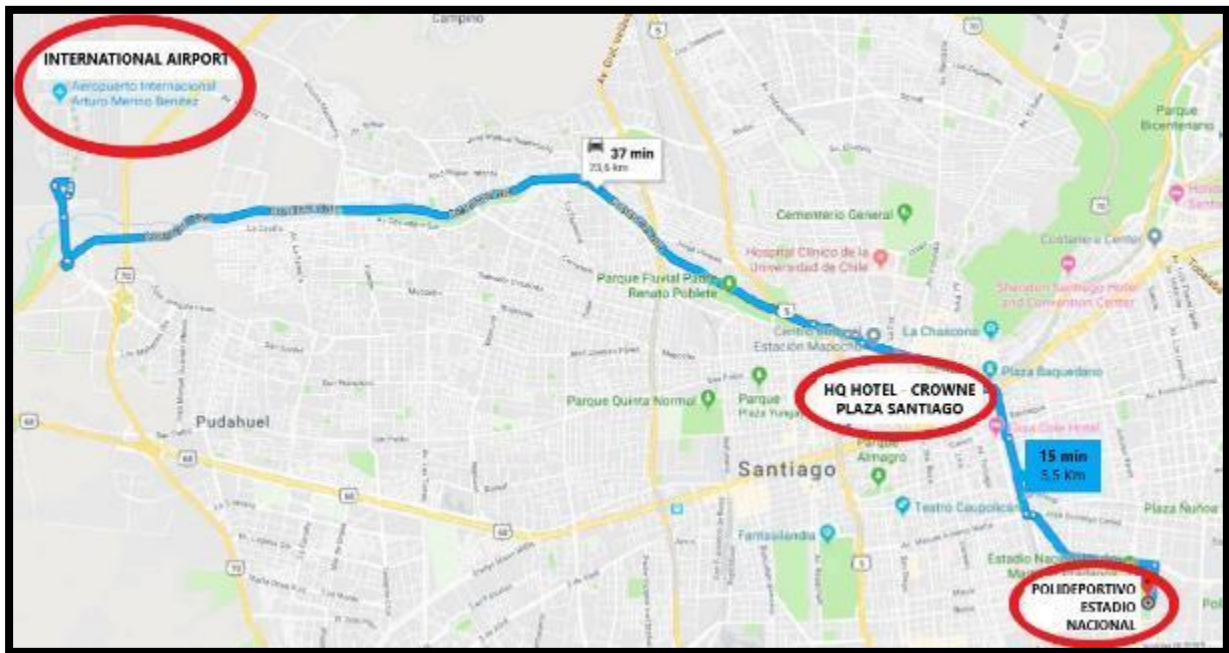

As a multi-purpose enclosure, the project generates a central nave with great accessibility to allow the efficient entry and evacuation of massive events. The sunken field allows optimal conditions of visibility for the public and conditions of autonomy for athletes. The concave geometry facilitates sound transmission and noise dissipation, achieving an environment free of annoying "acoustic surplus". In its upper part, controlled openings are generated that generate cones of natural ventilation sufficient to maintain comfort temperatures in public areas. Its structure also allows to achieve a wide free surface of supporting elements, by means of two structuring arches that form a translucent polycarbonate dome that allows a high luminance autonomy.

This scenario has been the home of many Karate Championships as Federated National Championships 2017 and 2018; Pan-American Karate Championship 2018 and Karate Championship 1 Series A 2018, having a great acceptance by the public, athletes and organizers.

AIRPORT - HOTELS: 20 – 29 Km.
HOTELS - PLACE OF COMPETITION: 3 - 10 Km.
Address: Avenida Pedro de Valdivia 4851, Ñuñoa, Santiago.

9.3 Servicio Agrícola y Ganadero de Chile (SAG)

In order to prevent exotic diseases, quarantine infestations and/or economically dangerous species according to the agropecuary politics from abroad in Chile, The Agropecuary Service. (Servicio Agrícola Ganadero - SAG) sets strong regulations for products of vegetal and/or animal origin entering the country.

SAG recommendation is to always DECLARE YES when in doubt about the products you are bringing into Chile. Shall you have any questions about the product statement declaration, please do not hesitate to ask a SAG officer at the airport, who will assist you on how to fill the document.

Customs regulations

If you are traveling into Chile with personal belongings such as: film equipment, film camera, furs or similar, must fill a temporal importation request form and submit it to the Policía Internacional (PDI). Otherwise, you must pay the custom tax.

Customs Office performs random inspections on the luggage of the travellers at the airport. If you are selected for this inspection and you are in possession of goods you failed to declare, customs authorities will decide whether you should pay a custom fine, be deprived of your goods or even be charged with a penalty infraction leading to jail time.

9.4 Opening Hours (Shops / Pharmacies)

Office hours are Mondays to Fridays, from 9:00 to 18:00. Bank hours are 9:00 to 14:00. Commercial centres and malls are open Monday to Sunday, from 10:00 to 21:00. Supermarkets are open 8:00 to 22:00.

9.5 Currency

The official currency of the country is the Chilean peso, and is represented by the sign $. The exchange rate varies continuously. One US dollar is equivalent to $ 650 Chilean pesos and one euro to $ 740 Chilean pesos (referential values at the time of issue of this bulletin). Exchanges can be made at the airport, at the exchange offices or at banks. In Chile, credit cards are accepted in commercial establishments such as shops, hotels, restaurants and travel agencies. However, it is recommended to have some cash in the national currency available for minor expenses. Tipping in Chile is voluntary and, in general, is not included in your bill or receipt. In restaurants, it is customary to leave a 10% tip.

9.6 Electricity

In Chile, electrical currents have a voltage of 220V and 50 hertz. Devices designed for 110V will burn when plugged in, unless a voltage converter is used. It is recommended to take voltage converters and adapters on the trip. The electric plugs have round pins and are Italian Type C or L.

9.7 Language

Official language in Chile is Spanish. Nevertheless, all representatives of OC speak basic English.

9.8 Time

GMT/UTM: -3

9.9 Weather

In the month of October the historical temperatures of Santiago de Chile oscillate between 7 ° Celsius as minimum and 23 ° Celsius as maximum. The last light rains of the year occurs in October.

9.10 Health & Services

There will be health professionals available in place of competition before, during and after. It is also important to announce that there is a primary health care center near the competition site.

9.11 Insurance

In compliance with WKF Rules, it is obligatory for all the participants and members of the participating delegations have their own medical and personal trip insurance. The Karate Federation of Chile and the World Karate Federation as well as the Organizing Committee assume no liability or responsibility for the lack of insurance from participants and members of the delegations. The head of the delegations must sign the enclosed terms of responsibility and return it by 16 July of August 2019 the latest.

Delegations that do not have insurance policies could acquire it during the days prior to the competition.

Bottled drinking water is available in numerous points of sale and distribution in relation to the championship.

9.12 Important Phone Numbers

- Ambulance: 131
- Firefighters: 132
- Police: 133

9.13 Safety in the city

Chile is ranked as one of Latin America's safest countries. The Ministry of Internal Affairs is in charge of public security in the country, which is enforced by Carabineros de Chile (Police) and Police de Investigaciones (PDI, Investigative Police). A recommendation is to make a photocopy of your passport for everyday use, while keeping the original document in a safe location. Additionally, it's best not to carry too much cash when going out.

The local police one of the strictest police in the world, is constantly making rounds in the streets, and you can go to them in case of doubts or any incidents.

9.14. Guidelines in case of telluric movements

Chile is prone to telluric movements. In the Metropolitan Region, where Santiago is located, most constructions are modern and designed to withstand any seismic movement, which gives added security to dwellers and visitors.

While the earthquake IS still happening: if you are inside a house or building, you must remain indoors, unless the construction is visibly deteriorated. If you are outdoors when the movement begins, stay away from buildings, trees, streetlights and overhead cables. You should remain outdoors until the earthquake is over. If you are in a vehicle, it is suggested to switch off the engine and remain inside the vehicle. Once the tremor is over, act carefully. Avoid bridges or ramps that might have been damaged during the telluric movements. Always follow emergency instructions of the place you are located.
